MOUNT GAMBIER BASIL WATSON DAY

The Mount Gambier Philatelic Society are having a Basil Watson Day at our club rooms on Sunday 5th March 1-5 pm where Carole Winter the author of "Basil Watson - Pioneer Aviator" will be present along with some memorabilia. The Mount Gambier Philatelic Society has organized covers & a postcard along with P-stamps to celebrate this occasion. Australia Post have also issued a pictorial postmark for use at Mount Gambier PO on 15 February. An anniversary flight has been arranged from Mount Gambier to Essendon airport.

FROM THE CIRCUIT BOOK OFFICE

After due consideration it has been decided to leave books as they are with 20 sheets of covers included. Clubs wishing to see more sheets with stamps can do this by taking a greater number of books. This will mean more work for your Circuit Book Officer so his/her agreement should be considered essential for this to occur. A number of individuals come in to our office to purchase material from sheets before they get put into books. These people obviously have fun doing this. Later this year we will be trying to ascertain what support, if any, may exist for a Circuit Book Open Day at SAPHIL House for this to be available on a weekend. If you have an immediate opinion to such a day please let us know.

AUSTRALIAN PHILATELIC FEDERATION LAUNCHES NEW WEBSITE

The Federation (APF) has redesigned and updated their website. The content still features all the latest news in Australian philately including details on exhibiting, collector products for writing up collections and details on stamp clubs and events around the country. Please check it out at www.apf.org.au

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

A glance at the "COMING EVENTS" section of this issue will reveal a large number of club open days, auctions and exhibitions already scheduled for 2017. A significant portion of these are to be held in the newly refurbished SAPHIL House. Being the SAPC's major asset it is important it is utilised as much as possible to provide a focal point for the state's philately and to justify the money that has been spent to improve the building's access and facilities.

With the aging collector base it is also pleasing and important to note the increase in daytime and weekend meetings at a number of clubs this year. I trust these will be well supported and prove to not only keep your existing members but also attract new ones. With the same goal in mind the SAPC is also encouraging more use of SAPHIL House for weekend meetings and events.

A special 're-opening event' is being planned for the last weekend in April so mark the 29th & 30th in your calendar.
